

Where to Eat in Lincoln Square

2008–2009

Restaurant & Bar Guide

LINCOLN SQUARE
BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT

On every street

and every avenue in the dynamic Lincoln Square neighborhood, you'll find an abundance of New York City's most enticing pubs, bistros, cafés, diners and fine restaurants.

Whether you are on your way to the opera, the ballet, a concert, or just doing some shopping, let Where to Eat in Lincoln Square guide you to the dining destination of your choice.

A foodie's idea of bliss, Lincoln Square's diverse range of eating establishments satisfies the palate's every whim any time of the day or night. Steps away are such earthly delights as great burgers, world-class sushi, flavorful cassoulets, wood-oven pizzas and creamy risottos. Indeed, traditional dishes from across the country and around the world have earned Lincoln Square its reputation as a major destination for some of the most compelling cuisine in Manhattan.

Rub elbows with the locals in classic neighborhood spots known for reliably tasty food and good service. Savor a falcon's eye view of Central Park as well as the food at Lincoln Square's cloud-dwelling restaurants. Reserve a place at a world-renowned chef's personal restaurant. Help yourself to prix fixe menus or nibble from a late-night bar menu. Stop for a latté and panini snack, or take a mid-day break with dark ale and oysters on the half shell.

This guide to the "best of the West" is brought to you by the Lincoln Square Business Improvement District. For additional copies of this complimentary guide, please call 212.581.3774 or email info@lincolnsquarebid.org.
