Manhattan's newest Color Me Mine, part of the world's leading pottery-painting chain, is having its Grand Opening on Saturday, Feb. 15th, 2020.

Located at 177 Amsterdam Avenue in the Upper West Side, the upscale studio is the ideal spot to get creative whilst spending quality time with friends and family.

Jam-packed with super fun activities for all ages, Color Me Mine will be offering an array of savings and celebrations to make its grand opening one-to-remember!

Studio fees are waived for the entire day, saving you a-not-to-be-missed $12 per painter, and customers will also have the chance to win more prizes when they 'spin-the-wheel' in store, including further discounts on ceramics, free studio fees for future visits, and donations to charities.

For the little ones in your group they can paint and be painted with free face-painting from 1-3 pm with Face By Melissa, as well as the chance to meet and greet with a real-life Princess, who'll be visiting the studio from 2pm!

Color Me Mine haven't forget the adults either, as later in the day the studio will be hosting a 'paint and sip' special from 5-9pm, where each customer will be served 2 glasses of wine as they relax and unwind whilst creating a-one-of-a-kind keepsake.

The studio's owner, Claudia Martinez Azzara is already excited about being part of the family-friendly neighbourhood, "we are thrilled to bring quality bonding time to families, friends, schools and businesses in the Upper West Side"

So, mark your calendars and make sure you stop by the studio with your friends and family to make memories, let your creative juices flow, and enjoy the celebrations.

And remember, no matter your age or skill level, you'll have a great time as Color Me Mine's friendly staff will guide you through the painting process and take care of the rest after you're done painting. Your art piece will be glazed for a shiny and smooth finish and will be fired in Color Me Mine's kilns for over 10 hours for durability. It will be ready for pickup soon after, and you'll enjoy it for a lifetime.

Color Me Mine is located at 177 Amsterdam Avenue, New York City, NY and is open 7 days a week, 10am to 7.30pm; no reservations needed.
